The new chart raised Wednesday outside the Chamber of Commerce shows that Tuesday's effort brought in $2,297.55 to the United War Work Fund. The unusual local conditions Monday made it necessary to give up carmonications on that day but These Monday made it necessary to give up campaigning on that day, but Tuesday's results show no reason for discouragement. Windham's quota is $14,000, although an effort is being made to increase the quota 50 per cent, throughout the district, and of this amount, $12,000 ought to be raised in Willimantic. Tuesday evening, San Jase Council, Knights of Columbus, voted a contribution of $200 and Willimantic Lodge of Elks has voted $50. The largest contribution came from the American Thread company employes, who pledged or paid, $592.95. ployes, who pledged or paid $592.95.
